

ANNE LOUISE FISHER TO RETIRE

After over three decades at the helm of Anne Louise Fisher Associates, the scouting business she founded in April 1983, Anne Louise has decided to retire. Catherine Eccles, who has worked closely alongside Anne Louise for the past nine years, is taking over the company with immediate effect. As from 1st May 2015, the business will be renamed Eccles Fisher Associates. Anne Louise will remain until she retires fully this June.

In all other respects, there will be no change. The other members of the Anne Louise Fisher Associates team will remain the same: Marzena Currie, Tomaso Biancardi, Sinead Heneghan and Charlotte Seymour. A further member of staff will be recruited in due course.

Anne Louise Fisher Associates clients are: US – Doubleday and Random House Children's Books; Canada – Random House; France – Laffont; Germany – C Bertelsmann, Knaus, DVA, Blanvalet, Random House Children's division; Italy – Mondadori; Sweden – Bonniers; Finland – Otava and Like; Norway – Gyldendal; Denmark – Gyldendal; Spain and Portugal – Penguin Random House; Brazil – Companhia das Letras and Objetiva; Greece – Patakis; Hungary – Libri Kiado; Turkey – Yapi Kredi; Film – Heyday.

Anne Louise Fisher comments: "I could not be happier and feel confident that I leave our wonderful publishers in very good hands"

Catherine Eccles comments: "Working alongside Anne Louise has been a huge pleasure, I will miss her and feel very fortunate to be continuing my work with exceptional publishers "
